GRADUATE STUDENT-LED GLOBAL SYMPOSIUM

NEXTEAFAE 2027

Intergenerational Learning in East Asia:

Rethinking Lifelong Learning

JANUARY 6 - 8, 2027

Seoul National University Central Library Seoul, Republic of Korea

JANUARY 7

Main Symposium

10:00-11:50

ROUNDTABLE

How Should We Respond?

School, Elderly, and Lifelong Education in East Asia

Prof. Wirathep Pathumcharoenwattana	Chulalongkorn University
Prof. Jiacheng Li	East China Normal University
Prof. Amy Shumin Chen	National Tsing Hua University
Prof. Te-Yung Chang	National Taiwan Normal University
Prof. Dae Joong Kang	Seoul National University

AFTERNOON · TWO PARALLEL TRACKS

13:00-14:30 What Makes Learning Intergenerational? Meanings and Relationships

ROOM A	ROOM B
Rethinking the Meaning of Intergenerational Learning	Care and Relationships Within and Beyond Families

14:45-16:15 Who Teaches Whom? Knowledge, Authority, and Roles

ROOM A	ROOM B
Rethinking Roles, Authority, and Reciprocity	Navigating Age Hierarchies in Universities, Communities, and Workplaces

16:30-18:00 Where Do Generations Meet? Communities and Creative Practice

ROOM A	ROOM B
Communities and Cities as Learning Infrastructures	Creative Practice and Shared Expression Across Generations

Seoul National University Office of Research Affairs R&DB Foundation

서울대학교 평생교육연구센터 Lifelong Education Research Center Seoul National University

WEBSITE

REGISTER